GVMC To Honor Retiring
At-Large Board Members

At our November 18th luncheon, GVMC will honor and recognizes the distinguished service of two of its longest serving Board members, Mick McGraw and Doyle Hayes. Both Mick and Doyle are prominent business executives and celebrated community servants.

Mick McGraw began his tenure as an At-Large GVMC Board of Directors Member in 1997, dedicating 18 years of service to the organization. In addition to his work with GVMC, Mick's career includes posts as Vice President of two subsidiaries of Union Bank & Trust as well as the parent bank. He joined Eastbrook Homes in 1978 where he now serves as CEO. Additionally, Mick has served on various non-profit boards including Mel Trotter Cabinet Council, Olivet Nazarene University Foundation, Wedgewood Christian Foundation, Mackinac Center Grand Rapids Advisory Doyle Hayes joined the GVMC Board of Directors at an At-Large member in 2000, honoring the organization with 15 years of service. Doyle's career includes tenures at General Motors for 20 years and then Diesel Technology as Vice President. After leaving Diesel Technology in 1994, Doyle started Pyper Products and the DHayes Group. Additionally, Doyle has served on many Boards including Metro Health, Mercantile Bank of Michigan, Davenport University, National Small Business Association, Grand Valley University Foundation, Center for Entrepreneurship, and Generation E of Southwest Michigan.

Doyle Hayes

We thank Mick and Doyle for the insights, guidance, and perspectives they have offered over their long and illustrious tenures, as well as for the examples of community service they set for us all.
